

Biomass Combined Heat and Power for Delmarva
Modern Maturity Center
Dover, Delaware
June 12, 2007

DRAFT AGENDA

7:30 a.m. Networking Breakfast

8:15 a.m. Welcome and Overview

Joe Orlando, Director, Mid-Atlantic CHP Application Center
Energy and Economic Benefits of CHP

Thomas Frankiewicz, Program Manager, US EPA Combined Heat and Power Partnership
Full Cycle Environmental Benefits of CHP

Rick Handley, Director of Regional Energy Programs, CONEG Policy Research Center, Inc.
Overview of Biomass CHP

9:30 a.m. Biomass Supply Panel

The panel will discuss biomass fuels available in Delmarva, including types, amounts, how to effectively identify and secure biomass fuel supply and other issues.

Panelists: Sam Topper, Senior Forester, Delaware Forest Service
 Dan Rider, Associate Director, Forest Products Utilization & Marketing,
 Maryland Department of Natural Resources
 Chris Lindsey, Senior Project Manager, Antares Group, Inc.

10:15 a.m. Morning Break & Exhibits

10:30 a.m. Technology Panel

The Panel will discuss the types of commercial biomass combustion systems, thermal applications including refrigeration, drying and surrounding issues.

Panelists: Robert Rizzo, Director of Facilities Administration, Mount Wachusett
 Community College
 Jim Babcock, Vice President of Sales and Operations, Advanced Recycling
 Equipment Inc.
 Joe Orlando, Director, Mid-Atlantic CHP Application Center

11:45 a.m. Policy Panel

The Panel will discuss policy issues surrounding biomass CHP including emissions, net metering, interconnection, generation of renewable energy credits, power sales and green tags.

Panelists: Brian Gallagher, Vice President, E3 Energy Services
 Katrina Pielli, U.S. EPA (invited)

12:30 p.m. Lunch & Exhibits

Delaware Lieutenant Governor John Carney (invited)
Luncheon Speaker

2:00 p.m. Adjourn